SUPPLY AND DEMAND MEET AND SHAKE HANDS IN THE TEE-DEE WANT COLUMNS KEEP BLOOD COOL AND DON'T WORRY

New Yorker, Aged One Hundred and Three, Tells How to Live Long.

"You need not bother about alcoholic drinks and tobacco if you keep your blood cool and avoid indigestion." said David Miley, who says he is one hundred and three years old, when seen at his home, No. 1830 Bathgate Avenue, Bronx, last three years old, when seen at his home.

No. 1820 Bathgate Avenue, Bronx, last hight.
"I never rode on an elevated train or trolley car, because I consider it bad for my stomach. My father lived to be one hundred and twenty-five years old, and I am out to beat his record.
David Miley lives with his son-in-law at the above address, and is a well known character in that section of the Bronx. When he wandered away from his home and did not return at night his disappearance was reported to the police. Search conducted by four generations of his descendants, aided by the police, resulted in his being returned to his home.
Miley has lived in this country for nearly seventy years. He attributes his long life to the fact that he selects all his own food. He is not a "medicine man" and frowns on all drugs except those he has prepared himself. He does not like to tell what plants and herbs he uses. After rising in the morning he works a while in his son's garden, and then goes to the bakery and selects his own stale bread, which is the only kind he uses. With a pot of weak tea or soup this constitutes his meal. After smoking his pipe for some time he takes a walk for a mile or more, though he has been known to walk from his home, near One Hundred and Seventy-fifth Street, as far as Twenty-sixth Street.
"I am not fond of lager beer," said the seventy-fills street, as an as as as seventy-fills street.

"I am not fend of lager beer," said the old man, "because that has too many chemicals in it. When I do drink it I put a lump of sugar in it. I have never had a doctor, and I have never had my picture taken. I have never used sosp in my life, nor have I ever called upon a barber. I attribute my long life to the fact that I eat stale bread and other food, which prevents indigestion by keeping the stomach cool."

Mr. Miley retains good control of all his stomach cool."

Mr. Miley retains good control of all his faculties, and speaks very intelligently of occurrences too far back for most of the present generation to remember. When he was picked up by the police he had temporarily forgotten where he lived, but in a few minutes his mind was clear and he was able to tell his own story.

Mr. Miley is healthy enough to give promise of being the oldest citizen of New York,—New York Herald.

BECOMES A BARON.

Stage Manager Inherits German Fortune and Title.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOSTON, July 14.—"Gus" Sohike, the stage director of "The Isle of Spy," and a ballet master, well known in this country, has just been informed by his attorney. William Grossman, of New York, that he has inherited the title of baron and an estate worth about $115.000 in American money, from an uncle in Germany, He will be known as Baron Augustus yon Horrenhoffer, of the Ducky of Wurtemburg, Schivelcastle on the Rhine. Rhine.
Soblke's claim to the title is through

Solike's claim to the three having member, who was well known a seer of years ago as a ballet dancer having performed in "The Black Crook." Mrs Augustus Solike was, however, of noble hirth, her real name being Nina Solike Schivel, and she was a daughter of Baron Schivel, Very much against the will of her father, she married her cousin. Her father then disinherited her, and with her husband she came to America.

THREE LITTLE GIRLS HUNT FOR MAN IN FAIRY TALE

Looking for the man they heard described in a fairy tale, three children, all under fived years old, last evening wandered three miles from home and were mally picked up by the police at Front and Diamont Streets at 9 o'clock and taken to the Fourth and York Streets

Station.
There they gave their names as Mary and Margaret Furth, aged four and three years respectively, and Lena Coyle, scarcely five years old. They all live statements at Hancock and Noble Streets.

scarcely live years out they can have at Hancock and Noble Streets.

The oldest one told liquide. Sergeant Nice that they were looking for the man with five legs, who, every time he laughted, dropped a doll-baby from his mouth. She said that some one had told them that there was such a man living in Kensington, and they wanted to find him. They had walked from 5 o'clock until 9, and were on the point of giving up the search when the policeman found them.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Gave Him a Vacation.

A vacation was generously profered Rev. T. McN. Simpson by his congrega-tion on Sunday. Mr. Simpson will be fur-nished the means wherewith to enjoy him-self, and is permitted to take the vaca-tion as best suits his convenience.

NO DECISION HAS YET BEEN REACHED

Not Known Whether Atlantic Coast Line Bonds Will be Sold.

(Special to The 1 mes-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, July 14—With respect to the report that the managers of the Atlantic Coast Line syndicate are about to offer publicly a nortion of the found Atlantic Coast lane symicate are about to offer publicly a portion of the bonds which they took from the company some time ago, it is learned authoritatively, that even the managers themselves have not come to a decision on the matter. It may be stated on excellent authority that the syndicate managers have soid a substantial angount of the bonds, and in substantial amount of the bonds, and in the course of events, they will offer the unsold bonds to the public, but when, as already stated, has not been decided. At any rate, it is not likely that the bonds will be put on sale in the near future.

The MAN ABOUT TOWN

Rural Retreat, July 14.
Little Willie went one evening out to hear, the village band;
In his pecket had a cannon; box of matches in his hand.
'Ile! hio ha! ha!' laughed the youngster, thought he saw some fun shead.
Broke the band up; broke the cannon; little Willie now in bed.
And then we got together and the ladies in the party invited us to come over to a progressive pink tea party.
We put on our pink tie, and polks dot cuffs, and started to the party with anticipation of pleasure, for we felt that a fellow out of the party with anticipation of pleasure, for we felt that a fellow the state of the party with anticipation of pleasure, for we felt that a fellow that we the same that is the control of the party with anticipation of pleasure, for we felt that a fellow that the property of the party with anticipation of pleasure, for we felt that a fellow that the party with anticipation of pleasure, for we felt that a fellow that the party with anticipation of pleasure, for we felt that a fellow that the party with anticipation of pleasure, for we felt that a fellow that the party with anticipation of pleasure, for we felt that a fellow that the party with anticipation of pleasure, for we felt that a fellow that the party with anticipation of pleasure and pleasure and
